

Dear Viewer

It was good to meet you last weekend and to pass on a copy of the DVD about Jesus. We hope you have enjoyed watching it.

We are looking forward to seeing you again briefly, to find out what you thought of the film, by getting your response to a seven-point questionnaire.

As we agreed, I am planning to come round at approximately _____ am/pm on _____. I hope this is still convenient.

If by any chance you are going to be out at that time, could you let me know, by phoning _____, so we could arrange another time?

And if at the last minute, you have to be out, could you leave a note on the doorstep suggesting another time I could come, and a phone number where I could contact you?

Thank you very much
